

COUNCIL OF WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

PRESENTS THE ANNUAL

Women's History Month Banquet

2016 Theme: "Working to Form a More Perfect Union: Honoring Women in Public Service and Government"

Meet Margaret Bourke-White

Produced by Eden Valley Enterprises. Researcher/Writer: Shelley Pearsall

Performers: Bette Lou Higgins and Priscilla Kaczuk as Margaret Bourke-White

Clevelander Margaret Bourke-White published 11 books of photo essays, was the first woman accredited as a war correspondent (1942), flew with the Air Force on a bombing mission in 1943, traveled with General Patton's Army through Germany in 1945, traveled to India twice and photographed Gandhi a few hours before he was assassinated in 1948. Come hear her amazing story and find out what it was like on the front lines during the war.
