

March Programs

Presque Isle State Park

DATE	TIME	EVENT NAME & DESCRIPTION	CONTACT
3/1/13	10:30-11:30am	Outside the Window: PI Lighthouse            Kids ages 3-5 will learn why a lighthouse flashes and experience a morning at the Presque Isle Lighthouse. Learn the tasks that keep the light burning. $3 per child, registration required.	Stacey Marendt 814-833-7424
3/07,14,21,28/13	6:30-8pm	New Year's Resolution Walk Series            Join us every Thursday evening for a guided walk on Presque Isle. Meet at the Rangers Station, no fee or registration. All ages welcome.	Stacey Marendt 814-217-9638
3/09/13	10am, 12:30pm	Presque Isle Light House            Join us for an opportunity to climb the 78 spiraling iron steps to the top of the tower. Registration required, no fee, space limited, participants must be 44" tall to climb the tower.	Brian Gula 814-217-9632
3/09/13	10am-12pm	The Garden at TREC Presents:            Natural Easter Egg Dyes and Birdseed Eggs            Join Master Gardener Roberta McCall for a hands-on program for all ages. Explore natural alternatives to artificial dyes for egg coloring and learn how to make a treat for the birds. Participants will make both crafts to take home. Pre-registration required. $3 per person.	Jen Salem 814-833-7424
3/10/13	2-5pm	Presque Isle Trolley Tour            Discover the rich history and importance of Presque Isle during the War of 1812 aboard the Bayliner Trolley. No fee, registration required.	Emily Hauser 814-217-9638
3/13/13 and 3/16/13	6:30pm and 1pm	Presque Isle Adopt-a-Beach            Participate in citizen science on your favorite Presque Isle beach. We are seeking volunteers to participate in a monthly 3-hour data collection clean-up from April-September. Attend one of these trainings to get involved. All materials and service hours provided. Registration required.	John Laskos 814-838-2454
3/15/13	7-8:30pm	Evening Campfire Talk: Joe Root            Enjoy our indoor campfire with legendary storyteller, Joe Root. All ages welcome, $2 per person, hot beverages provided. Blankets and warm clothes recommended. Registration required. Meet at the Rotary Pavilion.	Brian Gula 814-217-9632
3/16/13	9am-12pm	Gull Point Clean-up            Join the Naturalists for an opportunity to explore Gull Point before it is closed to human use for the season on April 1. We will be cleaning the shoreline and trails so migratory shorebirds have a pristine habitat to rest and feed during their migration season. Registration required, service hours available.	Stacey Marendt 814-833-7424

3/20/13	7-8:30pm	PI After Dark: Graveyard Pond Trail Enjoy a night hike and discover owls, coyotes and the nighttime activities of beavers. No fee or registration, all ages welcome. Meet at the Perry Monument parking lot. No flashlights needed.	Ray Bierbower 814-833-7424
3/23/13	10am-12pm	The Garden at TREC Presents: Success With Tomatoes Dreaming of enjoying a home-grown tomato? Join Master Gardener Helen Singer who will walk you through the steps to success. Gardeners of all skill levels welcome. Pre-registration required. $3 per person fee. All participants will receive a tomato start-up kit to take home!	Jen Salem 814-833-7424
3/23/13	10-11am	The Construction of Perry's Fleet Discover the importance of Presque Isle during the War of 1812 and how Perry's fleet was built. See the tools and techniques that shipwrights used. All ages welcome, no fee or registration. Meet at Prerry Monument.	Ray Bierbower 814-833-7424
3/23/13	1-2pm	Life of a Sailor Have you ever wondered what life was like for a sailor aboard a ship such as the Brig Niagara? Learn more about the challenging conditions the crew had to endure. Meet at Perry Monument, no fee or registration. All ages welcome	John Laskos 814-833-7424
3/27/13	10am-12pm	DiscoverE Beach Bash Kids ages 6-12 will explore the unique features of Presque Isle's beaches. Outdoor, hands-on sessions include beach plants, animals and beachcombing finds. No fee, registration required by 3/25.	Emily Hauser 814-217-9638
3/30/13	9am-12pm	Spring Cub Scout Day Tigers, Wolves and Bears are invited for a morning of outdoor achievements. Registration required by March 22, $3 fee.	Ray Bierbower 814-833-7424
Register by 3/29/13 Show 4/22/13- 5/22/13		Natural Impressions 2nd Annual Mixed Media Student Art Competition Students in Grades 1-College can enter artworks in this "Historical Presque Isle" themed competition. All art will be displayed in the TREC and winners will be recognized at an opening reception.	Brian Gula 814-217-9632